I'VE BEEN THINKING.
I've been thinking, I've been thinking, What a glorious world were this, Did folks mind their business more, And mind, their neighbor's less; For instance, you and I, my-friend, Are sadly prone to talk

Of matters that concern us not, And others' follies mock. I've been thinking if we'd begin To mind our own affairs,

That possibly our neighbors might Contrive to manage theirs; We've faults chough at home to mend— It may be so with others; It would seem strange if it were not, Since all mankind are brothers.

Oh! would that we had charity For every man and woman; Forgiveness is the mark of those Who know "to err is human." Then let us banish jealousy-Let's lift up our fallen brother, And as we journey down life's road, Do good to one another.

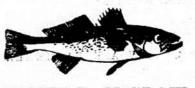

The Department of Agriculture has received the following figures of the success in fruit culture of Mesers. L. and A. B. Rathbone, of Oakfield, N. Y. :- In the spring of 1864 they set out 4,000 dwarf pear trees; 3,000 Duchess, 500 Louise Bonne de Jersey, 400 Beurre d'Anjou, and 100 Vicar of Wakefield. The trees were put ten feet apart each way, occupying ten acres. The soil is a gravelly loam, thighed with sand, with clay subsoil. For five years the frees were severally pruned. The oreland HOSIERY! received medium cultivation, but no fertilizer, except that in June, 1873, it was dressed with about eighty bushels per acre of slaked lime, and unleached wood-ashes. The fruit was delivered in barrels at Batavia; and the amounts received in several successive years are as follows: $100, $230, $110, $1,338, $2,250, $5,530; total, $9,558. In 1873 the gross sales reached $553 per acre.
